THE COALITION TO END RELATIONSHIP ABUSE REMEMBERS SAVANNAH RYAN WILLIAMS MINNESOTA'S 32ND CONFIRMED VICTIM OF INTIMATE PARTNER HOMICIDE IN 2023

Savannah Ryan Williams, 38, was shot and killed on November 29 in Minneapolis. Damarean Bible, 25, is charged with second-degree murder. Bible encountered Savannah at a bus shelter on Lake Street, and the two went to a nearby courtyard to have sex. Bible told police he became "suspicious" of Savannah during the sex act and afterward shot her and left her on body on the sidewalk. During a recorded phone call to his parents, Bible said he "had to do it." The firearm Bible used to kill Savannah was found in his apartment with no serial number. Savannah Ryan Williams identified as a trans woman.
